ments the expenditure will be more and in others less and this depends upon the exigencies of the cases.

Mr. Nanjappa.—

In the year 1922-23, according to the statement furnished, the expenditure on service heads was 221 lakhs. The next year's budget shows an increase of 12 lakhs.

Second Member of Council.—

Out of this, a sum of Rs. 6 to 7 lakhs was for the Education Department. Besides, expenditure of an emergent nature had to be incurred.

Q.—33. Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) What were the number of resolutions brought forward before the Reformed Representative Assembly ?

(b) How many were accepted by Government and how many were passed by a majority ?

(c) What arrangements have Government made to carry into effect the resolutions accepted by them ?

(d) What are the resolutions on which Government have not taken any action ?

(e) What arrangements have Government made to carry into effect the resolutions which were passed ?

CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT.—

A.—33. (a) and (b). For the information required in Sub-divisions (a) and (b) the attention of the member is invited to the proceedings of the Representative Assembly relating to the period in question.

(c), (d) and (e). All resolutions which have been either passed by the Assembly or accepted by Government are duly considered and orders on such of those as have been finally disposed of have been published in the Mysore Gazette from time to time.

Supplementary Questions.

Mr. D. S. Mallappa.—

Replies to the several sections of the interpellations have not been given separately. Was it not possible for Government to give replies under different heads ?

Dewan-President.—

We shall collect the information and furnish the same to you.

Mr. G. Parmasiviah.—

I request Government not to give such indefinite replies, at least in the future.

Mr. Mallappa.—

Does the collection of this information involve any additional cost ?

Chief Secretary.—

No. The information will be collected and furnished.

Mr. Mallappa.—

If the information is furnished, will it not facilitate our knowing what action has been taken by the Government on the resolutions passed by this Assembly ?

Dewan-President.—

Yes. It will be very useful indeed.

Mr. B. Srinivasa Iyengar.—

Has it not come to the notice of Government that very little benefit accrues to the people if the resolutions are not promptly disposed of by Government ?

Dewan-President.—

You are arguing now, are you not?
